The day started with the auspicious prayer. The first hour went with "sanskrita vyakarana adhyayaha that dealt with the basic grammar. The second hour was braced with the application point of views that happend in the first hour. After the lunch we had the "kreedaa" session where we had small games for improving the skills in Sanskrit . The second half of the day was also concentrated in the point of applications of vibhakthi prathyayaha (case endings). The last hour of the day witnessed an enlightening and inspiring sesion by T. R. Sasi Varier, Executive director of K. S. Varier's Ashtanga Ayurvedics Pvt. Ltd. The session mainly dealt with the approach and skills that one must develop to bloom as an excellent Ayurvedic practitioner.

The day ended on a happy note followed by shanti mantra and dinner.
